Director

CIAL Academy is a venture of Cochin International Airport Ltd established in collaboration with Indira Gandhi National Open University. Cochin International Airport Limited is one of the most successful infrastructure ventures in the civil aviation history of India. CIAL/CIASL have succeeded in laying a pivotal platform for young and energetic aspirants in the aviation industry by providing international facilities, faculties and industrial experts to mentor and mould them effectively for professional excellence and the aviation industry to benefit.

Participants are imparted with hands on experience in the aviation sector which is indeed a boon to them as there are no other institutions capable of providing such facilities. CIAL Academy has core faculty members and senior managers of Cochin International Airport Limited who are well experienced in their respective fields. The experts from various public and private sector establishments visit the academy as guest faculty and interact with the students regularly for academic purpose and also share their wide ranging experience in the chosen areas.

There is a full fledged state of the art library with ample books which keeps the students abreast with the latest themes and trends in the aviation industry.

All the programmes designed by CIAL Academy are unique and best suited for current and future requirements of the aviation and allied industries.

Vision of CIAL Academy

To develop and emerge as a Centre of Excellence for aviation industry and offer career oriented learning experience to aspirants in the country.
